Note, The Agreement was not begun to be ſign'd till Thurſday the 26th Inſtant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, and was ſign'd by the above Perſons before Five laſt Night, when it was ſent to the Preſs: So that the Names of all thoſe who ſign'd after, are not printed.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Chicheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. James Brudenell, Eſq; their Recorder and Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Chicheſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept our moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton, of ſo much Conſequence to the Commerce and Trade of this Nation, and of no leſs Diſappointment to the French, our natural and declared Enemies.

We moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of the ſincere Loyalty of this your ancient City, and of our hearty and chearful Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt all Oppoſitions whatever; and that we have the utmoſt Abhorrence of every Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity thereof in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, aſſiſted and ſupporred by our moſt inveterate and moſt dangerous Enemies, and thereby endeavouring to deprive us of our Religion, Liberties, and Commerce, the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and prudent Adminiſtration.

Sealed with the common Seal of the ſaid City, the Three and twentieth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

The

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, at a Juncture when your Royal Preſence is more immediately neceſſary for their Defence, againſt the Rebellious Inſults and Violence of domeſtick Enemies, ſupported by Foreign Power in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender to the Crown of this Realm.

It is not without the greateſt Concern and Deteſtation, we find any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſo inſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings they enjoy under the Protection of your Majeſty's Government, as to be in the leaſt deſirous of changing them, for any Thing they can poſſibly expect from the Eſtabliſhment of Popery and arbitrary Power in theſe Kingdoms.

If there be any Thing in Life worth living for, it is the ſafe and free Enjoyment of all our ſacred and civil Privileges; our Religion, Laws, Liberty and Property: But theſe ineſtimable Benefits of Government, peculiar to the Britiſh Conſtitution, muſt, of neceſſary Conſequence, we know, from the ſad and repeated Experience of former Times, have no Being at all, under a popiſh Prince.

Permit us, therefore, Gracious Sir, to profeſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms that Words can expreſs, our utter Abhorrence of that now-again threatned and impending Romiſh Yoke, which our Fathers could not, and which we (through God's Bleſſing and Aſſiſtance) will not bear; being all of us, with one Conſent, united in a firm Reſolution to join our Hands as well as our Hearts, and hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence and Maintenance of your Majeſty's moſt juſt and lawful Right to the Crown of Great Britain, againſt all the Practices and Deſigns of this, or any other Pretender that ſhall attempt to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Throne and Kingdoms.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaſter, in the County of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by ——— Renolds, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaſter, in the County of Lancaſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO give us Leave (amongſt the reſt of your faithful and loyal Subjects) to expreſs our unfeigned Joy for your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Majeſty's Britiſh Dominions, after your unwearied Labours abroad for the Good of Europe.

And likewiſe to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Arms in America, and particularly on the important Conqueſt of Cape Breton.

As we heartily deteſt the unnatural Rebellion, now raiſed by wicked and ungrateful Men to diſturb your happy Government over us; and being fully convinced that the Rebels are encouraged in this Attempt by the Houſe of Bourbon (who have been long aiming at univerſal Monarchy, and to make Great Britain a Province to France);

We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, with the greateſt Sincerity, we will ſupport (to the utmoſt of our Power) your Royal Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town Council and Community of the Burgh of Dumfries, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Magiſtrates, Town Council and Community of the Burgh of Dumfries, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions, which at once moderates our Fears, and we hope will ſpeedily defeat the Deſigns of your Majeſty's and our common Enemies.

Our Hearts are filled with Loyalty and Gratitude, when we conſider that under your Majeſty's gracious Protection, we have enjoyed every Thing dear to us, our Hopes of the Continuance of which are wholly in your Royal Perſon and Auguſt Family.

The preſent rebellious and audacious Attempt in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, excites in us the higheſt Indignation; that ſhall be exerted in the moſt vigorous Endeavours, with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport and maintain your Majeſty's Government; a juſt Return of Loyalty to ſuch a Sovereign, and the only Means to ſecure to ourſelves our Religion and Liberties

Sign'd in Name and Appointment, by
Geo. Bell, Provoſt.
Tho. Gilchriſt, Bailie.
John Graham, Bailie.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Corporation of Warwick, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Brook, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Corporation of Warwick, moſt humbly beg Leave (by the Hands of our Right Honourable Recorder) to addreſs your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations upon your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions. We are too ſenſible of the many Bleſſings derived upon us from your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, not to be exceedingly alarm'd at the Diſturbance offer'd to it by the implacable Enemies of this Nation, engaged (as we have but too much Reaſon to be convinc'd) in a moſt deteſtable Deſign to interrupt the publick Peace and Tranquillity, deſtroy the Religion, Laws and Liberties of theſe Kingdoms, and overturn what (under the Divine Providence) is the greateſt Security of them all, the happy Eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty on the Throne, with the Succeſſion of your Royal Family.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and unalterable Reſolution to employ on this and all other Occaſions, the utmoſt Aſſiſtance in our Power, towards oppoſing and defeating the pernicious Schemes of your Majeſty's Enemies in Favour of a popiſh Pretender. Given under our common Seal this 14th Day of September 1745, and in the 19th Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. the Lord Viſcount Duncannon, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, and alſo of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return into theſe your Britiſh Dominions; and at the ſame Time to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the wicked and pernicious Deſigns of our Enemies, in carrying on an Invaſion in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender. On this occaſion we think it our particular Duty, to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs (at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes) to aſſiſt your Majeſty in oppoſing all ſuch daring Attempts againſt your Royal Perſon and Family. And alſo to manifeſt our great Regard for, and earneſt Deſire to ſupport the preſent Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, which we have long enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and we hope will be continued to us and our Poſterity in your Majeſty's Royal Family.

We beg Leave alſo to addreſs your Majeſty, with our Joy and Gladneſs, upon your Majeſty's important Acquiſition of Cape Breton in North America; and may your Majeſty long live to ſee the good Effects thereof, in Extent of the Trade and Commerce of this Nation.

Dated at Derby the Seventeenth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpoole, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Owen Brereton, Eſq; Town Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpoole.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation at the daring Attempts that are made by the Enemies of this Nation in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender; and to aſſure your Majeſty, we are too ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, to think of exchanging them for Popery and Arbitrary Power; and that we ſhall be ready, on all Occaſions, to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt in Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, by which we only can hope to preſerve our Religion and Liberties, and every thing that is dear and valuable to us as Proteſtants and Freemen.

The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton, gives us the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure, as it will greatly contribute to protect and enlarge the Trade of your Majeſty's Subjects in America, and cramp that of our greateſt Enemies and Rivals in Trade: And we rely entirely on your Majeſty to ſecure to theſe Kingdoms this valuable Acquiſition.

The Election of the Grand Duke of Tuſcany to the Dignity of Emperor of Germany at this critical Juncture, fills us with the greateſt Joy, and is an Event ſo favourable to the common Cauſe, that we cannot but expect the beſt Conſequences from it, and that your Majeſty and Allies may yet defeat the ambitious Projects of a Court, big with Schemes to deſtroy the Liberties of Europe.

That your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe may long reign over a brave and free People in theſe Nations, is the earneſt Prayer of, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Burrough and Corporation of Liverpoole, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Owen Brereton, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Burrough and Corporation of Liverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the ancient Burrough of Liverpoole, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after having contributed ſo much to the Election of an Emperor, and thereby to ſettle the Peace of Europe.

The taking of Cape Breton by your Majeſty's Forces, is another Event which will add to the Glories of your Majeſty's Reign, as it is an Acquiſition much wiſhed for, and of the higheſt Importance, not only to the Trade of theſe Nations, but as it will remain a conſtant Supply and Nurſery of Seamen for your Royal Navy.

This ſecond daring Attempt of the Pretender in Scotland, we cannot think of but with the utmoſt Abhorrence: And we do, with Hearts full of the warmeſt Loyalty, aſſure your Majeſty, that we will (at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes) exert ourſelves in Support of the Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, (as this Corporation, with the greateſt Unanimity, did on the Rebellion in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifteen) againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever. Your Majeſty's mild and prudent Government calls for our earlieſt Teſtimonies of Loyalty, as Subjects; the Defence of our Religion, and the Support of our Laws, require them of us as Men. All concur to demand our Prayers for a Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign over a free People; and that the Succeſſion may remain in your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Burrough to be hereunto affixed, this Seventeenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the Holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth Elizabeth near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival in Great Britain.

We embrace with Pleaſure this Opportunity of expreſſing our Joy for the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in taking Cape Breton. Which is extreamly heightened by the happy News we have received, of the Election of an Emperor, ſo agreeable to the Views of your Majeſty, for the general Good of Europe, and who, in Conjunction with your Majeſty, and your Allies, will (we truſt) be able to check the reſtleſs Ambition of France.

The daring and wicked Attempt of the common Enemy, to obtrude upon us a Popiſh Pretender, by encouraging and ſupporting him in an actual Invaſion of your Majeſty's Dominions, muſt raiſe in all your faithful Subjects the juſteſt Indignation, and the firmeſt Reſolution to maintain your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms.

We of this Nation in particular, having formerly felt the heavy Effects of popiſh Tyranny and Superſtition; and on the other Side, having experienced the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Government, in the Preſervation of our Religion and Liberties, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and our conſtant Readineſs to ſupport them at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

We ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, that he may defend your Sacred Perſon from the Malice of your Enemies, and grant you a long and happy Reign over us: And that the Scepter of theſe Nations may continue in your illuſtrious Houſe to lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Eaſt Retford, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Eaſt Retford.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Eaſt Retford, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to this Kingdom; having, by your great Wiſdom, ſecured a Head to the Empire, capable of curbing the ambitious Views of France, and thereby defending the Liberties of Europe.

We alſo thankfully rejoice at the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in America, in the Reduction of Cape Breton, and the frequent Captures of the Enemies Ships, whereby they muſt be greatly diſtreſſed, and the Trade and Wealth of your Majeſty's Subjects much encreaſed.

Whilſt your Majeſty is procuring theſe, and many other ſolid Advantages to theſe Kingdoms, we cannot hear without Horror and Aſtoniſhment, that any of your Subjects ſhould be ſo wretchedly ſtupid, or ſo wickedly ungrateful, as to diſturb the Peace of your Government with Inſurrections in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, who, with the Aſſiſtance of our Hereditary Enemies, vainly hopes to ſubvert our Laws and extirpate our Religion. We doubt not but theſe Attempts will, by your Majeſty's Prudence, be ſoon fruſtrated, and end in the Ruin and Confuſion of the Authors: And at the ſame Time ſhew your Majeſty the Zeal of a free People to maintain the Honour of the Crown of Great Britain againſt all Inſults whatſoever.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, at this important Conjuncture, and at all other Times, heartily join with our Fellow Subjects, in exerting ourſelves to the utmoſt, to ſuppreſs all Sedition and Rebellion, and in teſtifying by all our Actions, our Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty, under whoſe auſpicious Government we can only hope to enjoy the Security of our Property, and the Liberty of our Conſciences. Which invaluable Bleſſings we beſeech the Almighty may, under your Majeſty and your Poſterity, be tranſmitted to lateſt Generations.

Given under our Common Seal this 20th Day of September, 1745.

Journal of the Combined Army in Bohemia, from the 16th to the 18th of September, N. S.

Sept. 16. THE Account we had received of the conſiderable Loſs ſuſtained by the Pruſſians upon the 12th was confirmed; amongſt the killed was a Lieutenant Colonel called Blumenau. By an intercepted Letter we found, that the Pruſſians had ſet Fire to the Suburbs of Neuſtadt by the expreſs Order of the King. Lieutenant Colonel Trenk ſent Advice, that by the Reports of ſeveral Deſerters which came in the Day before, the Pruſſian Army was preparing to enter into the Camp lately occupied by the Corps under Winterfeldt, who was advancing towards Braunau. We had alſo Accounts from ſeveral Quarters, that one of the two Pruſſian Battalions poſted at Schurfz was retired from that Place. Lieutenant Colonel Franchini ſent Word, that Orders had been given in the Pruſſian Army to pack up the Baggage, and to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march; by which, and the Preparations which he had obſerved, he judged judged they would very ſoon decamp, and that they had juſt received a Supply of all Sorts of Proviſions. The reciprocal Exchange of Priſoners having been ſettled, 80 Pruſſian Officers, with 1500 Non-commiſſion'd Officers and private Men, ſet out for Neu Bufow, in order to be exchanged for an equal Number of Auſtrians and Saxons. The Commiſſaries at the ſame Time agreed upon the Time for the Ranſom of the other Priſoners not included in the Number above-mentioned.

Upon the 17th our advanced Parties ſent Advice, that they perceived a Quantity of Artillery and Baggage belonging to the Pruſſians, filing off above Jaromirz, and that ſome of the Tents in their Camp were ſtruck. As the ſame Things were obſerved from our Head Quarters at Aujeſt, Orders were ſent to Major General Hagenbach to take Poſſeſſion of Pleſs with the Grenadiers under his Command, as ſoon as that Place ſhould be abandoned by the Enemy. About Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, Lieutenant Colonel Prince Lobkowitz, Son of the Field Marſhal, arrived at the Army, with News of the Grand Duke of Tuſcany's being elected King of the Romans upon the 13th, at Francfort; whereupon Prince Charles ordered, that the Sunday following ſhould be ſet apart for returning Thanks to the Almighty; that Te Deum ſhould be ſung under a triple Diſcharge of all the Artillery and Small-arms, as well of the Army in general, as the Corps under Hohenemb, Koenigſegg, and Nadaſti, who were inform'd thereof; as well as the Governors of the Towns of Konigingratz and Pardubitz. At the ſame Time Major General St. Andre gave an Account of his having taken Poſt upon the 15th in the Neighbourhood of Nachod. He added, that the Pruſſians had countermanded building any more Ovens at Nachod; from which he was of Opinion, that they had reſolved upon abandoning the Kingdom in a little Time. Lieutenant Colonel Deſoffi wrote Word from Miletin, that the Pruſſians had the Day before made a general Forage near Policfan, and that the Foragers had been ſo well covered, and the Number of their Forces ſo ſuperior to thoſe under him, that he could not poſſibly interrupt them.

Upon the 18th, Prince Charles was informed by General Koenigſegg, that beſides having taken Poſſeſſion of Neuſtadt, which had been evacuated by the Pruſſians, Count Nadaſti had paſſed the Mettau, and was encamped between Bohuſlawiz and Krzyn.

Accounts came from Lieutenant Colonel Franchini, who was then poſted on the Side of Gwalkowiz, that the Pruſſian Garriſon of Schurz was retired from thence to Jaromirz; that on the other Side, the Pruſſians had thrown ſeveral Bridges over the Elbe between Jaromirz and Hermanize; that he had beſides obſerved a Column of their Troops taking the Road towards Gwalkowiz; that he did not know whether with Deſign to forage, or to return to Trautenau; however that there was a Report that they intended to poſt a Corps at Trautenau. Our Spies as well as the Deſerters agreed, that the Pruſſian Army had not only ſent away the greateſt Part of the Baggage, but that all the Troops alſo held themſelves in Readineſs to quit their Camp that Day. Their Accounts proved true, for we had Advice, that at Three in the Morning the Pruſſians had abandoned Schmirſchitz, and that after the Signal given by firing a Cannon, their Army having decamped, was marching towards Skaliz, having firſt abandoned the Poſt of Pleſs, and even quitted the Town of Jaromirz: Whereupon our Troops had taken Poſſeſſion of both theſe Places, and Detachments had been ſent out in Purſuit of the Enemy: For this Pupoſe alſo Lieutenant Colonel Deſoffi had Orders to paſs the Elbe, and to concert with Lieutenant Colonel Franchini the proper Meaſures for falling upon their Rear, for cutting off their Communication with the Country thereabouts, and for intercepting their Convoys. The like Inſtructions were ſent to Major General St. Andre and Colonel Trenk. At the ſame Time the whole Army prepared to march, in order to ſecond the ſaid different Corps of light Troops, to harraſs the Enemy in their Retreat, and to drive them entirely out of Bohemia.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Lord Archbiſhop of York, Lords Lieutenants, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of York, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl of Malton, Lord Lieutenant of the Weſt Riding of the County of York, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Archbiſhop of York, Lords Lieutenants, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others, of the County of York, at a General Meeting held at the Caſtle of York, the Twenty-fourth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO accept from your faithful Subjects of this County, the Aſſociation enter'd into this Day with a moſt unanimous Concurrence, as a Teſtimony of their Affection to your Majeſty's ſacred

ſacred Perſon and to your Royal Family. If the Rebellion in Scotland ſhould continue to make its Progreſs this Way, our Actions ſhall make good our Words, and we are determin'd, under the Bleſſing of God, and with the Aſſiſtance of your Majeſty, to uſe our utmoſt Efforts, and at the Hazard of our Eſtates and Lives, to ſtand up in Defence of our Religion and our Country, and the Preſervation of your Majeſty. God grant your Majeſty a long and an happy Reign over us, and that the Days of it which are to come, may be as full of Peace, as thoſe which are paſt have been diſtinguiſhed (with the ſincereſt Thanks and Gratitude we declare it) by the mildeſt and moſt juſt Adminiſtration in the World.

The Aſſociation.

WHereas there is now a horrid and unnatural Rebellion, formed and carried on in Scotland by Papiſts and other wicked and traiterous Perſons, countenanced and ſupported by the old and inveterate Enemies of our Country, and the Religion and Liberties thereof, the Crowns of France and Spain, in order to dethrone his preſent Majeſty King George, the only rightful and lawful King of theſe Realms; and having ſubverted our Religion, Laws and Liberties, (which God forbid) to ſet upon the Throne a popiſh Pretender, a Dependant and a Slave to thoſe tyrannous and corrupted Courts: We the Lord Archbiſhop of York, Lords Lieutenants, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of York, whoſe Names are ſubſcribed to this Writing, and every of us, being of Opinion, that in Times ſo full of Danger and treaſonable Practices as theſe are, an Union of our Hearts and Forces will be moſt conducing to his Majeſty's Safety, and the publick Good of our Country, Do Voluntarily and Willingly bind ourſelves, every one of us to the other jointly and ſeverally, in the Band of one firm and loyal Society, and do hereby promiſe, that with our whole Powers, Bodies, Lives and Eſtates, we and every of us will ſtand by and aſſiſt each other in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and will withſtand, offend and purſue, as well by Force of Arms, as by all other Means, the ſaid popiſh Pretender and Traytors, and alſo all Manner of Perſons, of what State ſoever they be, and their Abettors, that ſhall attempt, act, councel or conſent to any Thing that ſhall tend to the Harm of his Majeſty King George, or of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, or any of their Iſſue, or to the Subverſion of his Majeſty's Government. And we do by this Inſtrument declare, that no one of us ſhall, for any Reſpect of Perſons or Cauſes, or for Fear or Reward, ſeparate ourſelves from this Aſſociation, or fail in the Proſecution thereof during our Lives. Dated at the Caſtle of York, the Twenty fourth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

N. B. The Names of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others, that ſigned the above Aſſociation, will be inſerted in the next Gazette.

The following Speech was made by his Grace the Archbiſhop of York to the Nobility, Gentry and Clergy, who met at York upon this Occaſion.

My Lords, Gentlemen, my Reverend Brethren of the Clergy,

I Am deſired by the Lords Lieutenants of the Ridings, to open to you the Reaſons of our preſent Aſſembling; and as the Advertiſement, which has called us together, is in every Body's Hands, and the Fact now ſpeaks itſelf too plainly, a few Words will be ſufficient on the Occaſion. It was ſome Time before it was believed, I would to God it had gain'd Credit ſooner, but now every Child in the Kingdom knows it, That the Son of the Pretender is in Scotland, has ſet up his Standard there, has gather'd and diſciplined an Army of great Force, receives daily Increaſe of Numbers, is in Poſſeſſion of the Capital City there, has defeated a ſmall Part of the King's Forces, and is advancing with haſty Steps towards England:— What will be the Iſſue of this rapid Progreſs, muſt be left to the Providence of God; however, what is incumbent upon us to do, is to make the beſt Proviſion we can againſt it; and every Gentleman, I dare ſay every Man in England, will think it his Wiſdom and his Intereſt to guard againſt the miſchievous Attempts of theſe wild and deſperate Ruffians. But the great Miſchief to be fear'd, which ought to alarm us exceedingly, and put us immediately on our Defence is, the certain Evidence, which every Day opens more and more, that theſe Commotions in the North are but Part of a great Plan concerted for our Ruin:— They have begun under the Countenance, and will be ſupported by the Forces of France and Spain, our old and inveterate, and late Experience calls upon me to add, our ſavage and Blood-thirſty Enemies:— A Circumſtance that ſhould fire the Indignation of every honeſt Engliſhman.—— If theſe Deſigns ſhould ſucceed, and Popery and Arbitrary Power come in upon us, under the Influence and Direction of theſe two tyrannical and corrupted Courts, I leave you to reflect, what would become of every Thing that is valuable to us.——We are now bleſs'd under the mild Adminiſtration of a Juſt and Proteſtant King, who is of ſo ſtrict an Adherence to the Laws of our Country, that not an Inſtance can be pointed out, during his whole Reign, wherein he made the leaſt Attempt tempt upon the Liberty, or Property or Religion of a ſingle Perſon :— But if the Ambition and Pride of France and Spain is to dictate to us, we muſt ſubmit to a Man to govern us under their hated and accurſed Influence, who brings his Religion from Rome, and the Rules and Maxims of his Government from Paris and Madrid.—For God's Sake, Gentlemen, let us conſider this Matter as becomes us, and let no Time be loſt to guard againſt this prodigious Ruin.—To your immortal Honour be it ſpoken, you have conſider'd it, and are now met together to call in the unanimous Conſent and Aſſiſtance of this great Country. This County, as it exceeds every other for its Extent and Riches, ſo it very naturally takes the Lead of the inferior ones; and it will be extremely to our Credit, give Courage to the Friends of the beſt Conſtitution in the World, damp the Spirit of its Enemies at home, (if any ſuch can be conceived in Britain at this Dangerous Criſis) and be an Inſtruction to thoſe Abroad, that there is ſtill Spirit and Honeſty enough among us, to ſtand up in Defence of our Common Country. This will be the Uſe of an unanimous and hearty Declaration of Fidelity to our Country, and Loyalty to our King. But the Times, Gentlemen, call for ſomething more than this; ſomething muſt be done, as well as ſaid; and the Fund for our Defence, already begun, and now to be propoſed to this great Aſſembly, will, it is hoped, from Reaſons of publick Example and publick Safety, meet with the hearty Concurrence of every Individual that compoſes it; and at the ſame Time that your Hearts go along with the Aſſociation, your Hands will be open to ſupport the neceſſary Meaſures of Self-defence.

As to you, my Reverend Brethren, I have not long had the Honour to preſide among you; but from the Experience I have had, and what I have always heard of your honeſt Love to your Country, if you permit me to ſay ſo, I will be your Security to the Publick, that ye will decline no Pains to inſtruct and animate your People, nor Expence, according to your Circumſtances, to ſtand up againſt Popery and arbitrary Power under a French or a Spaniſh Government. We ſcorn the Policies of the Court of Rome, have no Intereſts ſeparate from the People, but on every Occaſion, where our Country is concern'd, look upon ourſelves as incorporated with the warmeſt Defenders of it; or if we do deſire to be diſtinguiſhed, it will be by our Ardour and Zeal to preſerve our happy Conſtitution.

Let us unite then, Gentlemen, as one Man, to ſtop this dangerous Miſchief, from which Union no Man ſurely can withdraw or withhold his Aſſiſtance, who is not liſted into the wicked Service of a French or Spaniſh Invaſion, or wholly unconcern'd for the Fate of his bleeding Country.

May the Great God of Battles ſtretch out his all-powerful Hand to defend us; inſpire an Union of Hearts and Hands among all Ranks of People, a clear Wiſdom into the Counſels of his Majeſty, and a ſteady Courage and Reſolution into the Hearts of his Generals!

Whitehall, September 28.

The King has been pleaſed to ſend Orders to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, to ſend over immediately eight Battalions, and alſo nine Squadrons of the Britiſh Troops from the Army under his Royal Highneſs's Command, for the Defence and Security of his Majeſty's Kingdoms.

Whitehall, September 28.

By Letters from Berwick of the 23d and 24th we are informed, that about 500 of the Dragoons under Sir John Cope were then there; that ſome of the Foot had likewiſe got to that Place, and others were gone for Carliſle, and that La Roque's Regiment of Dutch Troops landed there on the 23d in the Morning. That the Rebels, after the late Action, lay for ſome Time at Dudingſton and Muſſelburgh, near Edinburgh, and then returned to that City; ſince which there were no certain Accounts of their Motions. The following is the moſt exact Liſt we have as yet received, of the Officers killed and wounded in the late Action.
